

ROSE PRIESTESS
PETAL SPELL

MAGDALENE MAGIC

The Goddess is embodied in infinite and creative ways. Included, is the sacred witch, enchantress and sorceress archetypes, that hold great powers and wisdom of the way of the Rose . In honour of the Black Rose Temple, I invite you to remember and to heal your magical essence,(Maiden self), more profoundly, through the awakening of this inherent artistry within. This delicate knowledge and way of being is contained within the elemental lore of the Fae and the feminine mysteries.

The traditional usage of magic and spells not only spans time but is also a part of many cultures deeply embedded in the natural lore of the healing arts, shamanism and the way of the Priestess. Mary Magdalene as a Womb shaman and Alchemist performed great magic and miracles including the journey of resurrection with Jeshua. Her true nature combines the integration of the star wisdom, sexual potency and the blood mysteries. In essence. Mary Magdalene is the embodiment of the Womb of Sophia and therefore her womb is a cauldron for magic, healing, purification and transformation. The Magdalene order, as part of their sacred mission, raises the vibration of Gaia and humanity through this ancient way of nature, mysticism and alchemy.

Mary Magdalene along with Mother Mary trained in the temple of Isis in Alexandria, Himalayas in India and upon the lands of Europe such as Avalon Glastonbury. The Rose lineage combines the ancient knowledge from Sumeria, Egypt, Israel, and the Celtic lands. Although India, Tibet and many other cultures have their own traditional medical systems such as Ayurveda in India, healing through magic spells was also practiced. In India, after the systematisation of Ayurveda, these healing spells almost lost their significance and only the spells for specific diseases were further transmitted. On the other hand, Indian Buddhism partially accepted the healing spells, and Buddhist texts which include the healing spells began to appear after the 4th century. These texts were brought into other Asian countries and became popular therein.

Mary Magdalene and the Magdalene Ministry wish to open this portal of witchcraft to bring deeper levels of mastery into your every day. So, you can once again believe in your magic.

WHITE STAR WISDOM PRIESTESS

The Priestess of Air and water is the eternal celestial skies and breath of life. She transmits the pure encoded life-force of the magical white, opal, gold, and silver Light. As an Avatar she directs the celestial Rose consciousness encoded with the wisdom of the stars into her artistry and witchcraft. She is the wisdom keeper of the White Swan, Deer and White Buffalo and all magical white sentient beings.

The White Rose Witch is the otherworldly shimmering white opalescent light that we perceive in the fae, angelic and intergalactic beings. She is the Prophetess who can travel to the cosmic womb and listens to the stars. Returning to share the wisdom of the Stellar Light. She is highly sensitive and can cast her spells through telepathy and high levels of Light.

She is adept and moving objects with her pure intention, journeying between worlds and flying. Perhaps this is the correlation between the witch and the flying broomstick. She is connected to the white Tara, White buffalo woman and to the Skywalkers of creation who tend our cosmic skies through their sacred feminine power of deep wisdom, light and superhuman powers.

RED ROSE WOMAN

The Priestess of fire and water is the holy spirit of the divine feminine essence and weaver of the great Shakti (feminine life-force) creative energy. The Red Witch is the pure and sacred sexual potency and sensual power of our rich life-giving blueprint and vital energy. She transmits the deep red, scarlet, ruby, rose, soft pink and peach light. The Master Alchemist and guardian keeper of the Serpent, dragon and Faery medicine. The Red Witch is the portal from the celestial to the Earth realms. Intrinsic to her nature is the magical arts of Tantra that directs the vital life-force flow within the physical and subtle anatomy.

She is the full and holy expression of Shakti energy, adept within the blood and Womb Alchemy, herb lore, plant medicine and the tantric arts. Her wisdom is soft and fierce and her exquisite knowledge and understanding of the menstrual cycle and rites. Her Rose ceremony of the mysteries and manifestation is impeccable. She can create spontaneous healing through her miraculous knowing and mastery of the sacred sexual energies of Woman. She is connected to Mary Magdalene, the Dakini, Oshun and Pele.

BLACK COSMIC MOTHER

The Priestess of Earth and water, deep purification, healing and empowerment through divine Spirit and Truth. The Black Witch directs the force of the black, deep purple, sapphire blue and deep green light. She is the portal and bridge to Sophia, the cosmic womb. Through deep embodiment of sensual and celestial energies she performs the most profound purifications to heal through soul retrieval and core karmic wounds reclamation. She is the High Priestess who leads initiates into the journeys of the dark night of the soul.

Bringing initiates back into alignment with the soul's path and highest potential. She removes fear of death and all fears that limit the true expression of the soul. The Black witch is the magical gateway and powerful force that guides the journey of resurrection and transfiguration. She clears all obstacles through her sorcery and asks for the highest devotion and courage to divinely remember the true magic within.

She is the wisdom keeper of the Black Jaguar, Panther and all ocean beings. The embodiment of the Black Madonna, Morgan Le Fey, the Dakini and Black Tara. She is the Cosmic Womb of birth, death and rebirth. The all-seeing eye of the Divine and the Goddess of the ancient lineage of the Magdalene Order.

To culminate Witchcraft has been outlawed since times of Sumeria when the rise in the suppression of Women's power began. The Magdalene order are key in the restoration and upliftment of the spells that have separated sacred feminine and Masculine spirits. Returning the Rose to the Garden of Eden

The Rose Priestess (witch) vows to acknowledge and understand that the spiritual (magical) journey is not about obtaining titles or hierarchy as much as it is about drawing closer to the Divine and growing mentally, emotionally, and spiritually as ONE.

The core of the Witch Priestess are her inner realms, her deep subconscious and the intuitive nature. Her sovereignty comes from her direct revelation from within. To honour and awaken this aspect brings positive change to the planet. Even though there are various lineages, traditions and ways. The Magdalene Order follows the highest spiritual truth. Magic comes from within, through your personal eternal interconnection to spirit. The ceremonies and rituals created from this intimate relationship, is your healing and can be transformed into healing gifts, methodology and rituals for the collective.

ROSE OF THE DEEP RITUAL

Find a large jar or glass bowl that can withstand warm/hot water.

You will need fresh Rose petals, Rosemary, hawthorn berries, a fig, and seeds/pips of an apple and spring water. Take each plant into your heart, connect and commune with its essence and medicine. Then add them to the jar or bowl filled with spring, distilled or filtered water. Create your intention/spell which is a formula or intelligence that is the energetic signature behind your powerful ritual. Use Rose Petals and Rosemary only if you cannot get hold of other ingredients.

If any limitations arise or trauma from past experiences, practice the fear processing exercise.

Cast your circle- this means to set sacred space. Use your created invocation from the Violet Temple to do this. .

Perform the Invocation (on the following page), once you have all the ingredients in the blessed water.

Once you have invoked the Spirit and connect to your pure intention place a drop of rose oil into the water. With your index finger circle 3-time anticlockwise onto the surface of the water. Then place the water out under the Moon for 4 hours or more.

Once infused with the Moon light bring it to your altar . Place a drop of oil into the water and with your index finger circle 3 times onto the surface of the water clockwise. Recite your intention and gaze into the water.

Look into the bowl or jar of water and imagine a Rose forming. Imagine the centre of the Rose and come into stillness. Be still for at least 3- 13 minutes.

Once complete you can anoint your body with the magical water by placing the water upon your finger and then gift is to the land or place it into a gorgeous ritual bath.

Ground and seal your sacred space. Thank your guides and spirit for carrying your magic to its ultimate fulfillment according to divine will.

ROSE

RITUAL INVOCATION

The Rose of the Deep awakens.

I call forth the Great Rose Spirit and the Illumination of Grand-Mother Moon.

Mary Magdalene, I call forth your unconditional love and the way of Magic.

Bring to light my inner passion of great healing, change and peace within

As the Moon Ripens in my womb the feminine mysteries of love, wisdom and power ignite.

Mary Magdalene, I call forth Sophia through your embodied grace and cosmic Christ Consciousness.

As the Moon Ripens in my womb, I weave magic .

I draw the Moon light into the magical circle of gold and black.

Like stars my cells shimmer and come alive.

The Rose of the Deep awakens.

My essence Rises.

Divine Goddess of the Deep Dark skies embrace me with your ancient wings of wisdom.

Bless me with you Love and Power to conjure and affect change within my reality.

The Rose of the deep.

Forms new spirals and codes within my DNA.

The Rose Codes of self-love are activated.

My intention is pure

My spell is sealed

My magic is sealed

And so, it is.

Great Rose Spirit of Truth and Light

Weave your Rose Magic for all under the MoonLight
