

THE TEMPLE OF THE ROSE

A LIVING TEMPLE OF THE DIVINE MOTHER

THE TEMPLE OF THE ROSE IS A LIVING SANCTUARY DEVOTED TO THE DIVINE MOTHER—THE ETERNAL SOURCE OF LIFE, LOVE, AND CREATION. MORE THAN A BEAUTIFUL SPACE, IT IS A SACRED PATH OF REMEMBRANCE, INITIATION, AND SOUL AWAKENING.

This Temple is a path home — a Rose path. A way of life where you are gently guided to remember who you truly are. It is an intimate journey, held by me, Chloé, and by the Magdalene Rose lineage.

Together, we open the chambers of sacred embodiment, soul initiation and holy union. All teachings and transmissions come through my personal path, offered with love and deep devotion. They are not rigid lessons but living gifts that unfold in harmony with your own timing and the sacred feminine rhythms.

You will be supported to walk your path at your own pace — in connection to the earth, your body, and the Divine Mother's love. Within the Temple, you will find sacred rites, ancient wisdom, body prayers, and teachings from Mary Magdalene, Jeshua, and the Rose lineage.

You will also receive offerings from others who share their light and love spontaneously and in ceremony.

STEP SOFTLY AND TRUST YOUR TIMING - THIS IS YOUR SACRED SPACE TO UNFOLD, HELD GENTLY BY THE ROSE MOTHER.

THE MAGDALENE LINEAGE AND THE ROSE TEMPLE

Mary Magdalene and the Roses are ancient and living symbols of the sacred feminine, of healing and remembrance, carrying within them the mysteries of holy union, sacred sexuality, and the awakening of the soul's deepest truth. In these modern times, the bodies of women are being called to rise — to shed the old wounds and reclaim the power of the womb, the voice, and the sanctified energy of the feminine. The Temple of the Rose is a sanctuary for this return, a space where the sacred can be remembered through direct experience, where your gifts are honoured, and your path gently revealed. The Rose is not only a symbol but a living guide — a teacher that blossoms within you, leading you ever deeper into embodied remembrance and feminine soul expression.

MESSAGE FROM MARY MAGDALENE

Beloved daughter
Your body is holy ground
Your blood carries the memory of the Earth and the stars
Your womb is a sacred temple — not only for life, but for truth, remembrance and healing. In these times, it is through the awakening of the feminine body that the world is being reborn. You are the very key
Your healing and reclamation are the pathways
Walk your path of the Rose
Let your body speak, bleed, love and pray again
Let the sacredness return.
You are the bridge between Heaven and Earth
You are the chalice
And the time is now to turn on the light of your divinity

— Mary Magdalene
We are the breath of the Beloved
